GOVERNOR-ELECT DR. RICARDO ROSSELLÓ-NEVARES NOMINATES LSP MEMBER OMAR J. MARRERO AS TO HEAD VARIOUS P.R. GOVERNMENT INSTRUMENTALITIES

Governor-elect Dr. Ricardo Rosselló-Nevares announced yesterday his nomination of our fellow member Omar J. Marrero-Díaz as Executive Director of the Puerto Rico Ports Authority, the Puerto Rico Public-Private Partnerships Authority, and the Puerto Rico Convention Center District Authority. Mr. Marrero had previously served as Secretary of the Department of Consumer Affairs of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

Omar's practice at our Firm has focused on corporate, securities, real estate, and commercial distribution law as well as estate planning, and government affairs. Throughout his practice, he has leveraged his considerable experience in business transactions and corporate governance, to the benefit of his clients. Previously, as Secretary of the Department of Consumer Affairs and in conjunction with the private sector, Omar was responsible for implementing initiatives that promoted consumer protection regulations.

Martín Pirillo-Favot, fellow member and co-founder of our Firm, commented: "Omar's nomination is an honor for all of us, and we are proud of his accomplishments. Omar has excelled at providing sound advice and obtaining the results that our Firm's clients have grown to expect from us. Omar's experience and skills will enable him to serve as a medium between the Puerto Rico government and the private sector, to promote the economic growth that our Island sorely needs. His creativity will enable him to implement novel economic and fiscal initiatives which will have a positive impact on Puerto Rico's economy and our daily lives."
